

Analyzing a Work of Art as a Source

Name: _____

Work of art (artist, title, and date):

1. Look carefully at this artwork. What do you notice? Write down your observations. Be thorough.
2. Carefully review your observations. Did you write down any inferences? Inferences are conclusions or opinions formed because of known facts or evidence. Try framing any inferences as questions for further exploration or research.
3. Look again. What intrigues you about this work? Are there any details that you want to know more about? Write down 3–5 additional questions.

Observations Avoid making inferences about the artwork's meaning.	Questions Change inferences into questions, and write them here.