WELCOME TO THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO

You've just stepped into one of the world's great art museums, with a collection of art that spans centuries of creativity from around the globe.

Whether today is your first visit or your hundred and first, we hope you enjoy your time in the galleries.

VISITING TIPS

WAYS TO EXPLORE

Check out “What to See in an Hour,” on the back of this guide, for a tour of some highlights of the Art Institute’s collection.

Download the museum’s free app to listen to audio commentary and tours. The app is available at the App Store and Google Play.

PHOTOGRAPHY

We invite you to take photos and encourage you to tag us on Instagram: @artinstitutechi. For the safety of the art and your fellow visitors, flash, video, tripods, and selfie sticks are not permitted. Please also note signs by a few works that cannot be photographed due to lender restrictions.

DINING

Choose from a selection of local Chicago favorites at the Market, located on the lower level of the Rubloff Building, or opt for lighter fare, coffee, and other refreshments in the Modern Café, on the second floor of the Modern Wing.

SHOPPING

Pick up items inspired by our collections and exhibitions before you leave. The museum’s shops are located near both the Modern Wing and Michigan Avenue entrances—or shop online at shop.artic.edu.

ACCESSIBILITY

Manually operated wheelchairs are available free of charge at both of the museum’s checkrooms on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information on our accessibility options, visit artic.edu/accessibility or email access@artic.edu.

The Art Institute of Chicago is located on the traditional homelands of the Council of the Three Fires: the Ojibwe, Odawa, and Potawatomi Nations. Many other tribes, such as the Miami, Ho-Chunk, Menominee, Sac, and Fox, also called this area home. Today, one of the largest urban American Indian communities in the United States resides in Chicago.
