GUY U. YOUNG,
MANAGER

THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The museum building upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from 9 to 5:30, Sundays from 12:15 to 9 p. m. Admission is free to members and their families at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays.

The art school, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, is under the same roof.

All friends of the Art Institute are invited to become members. Annual Members pay a fee of ten dollars a year. Life Members pay one hundred dollars and are thenceforth exempt from dues. Governing Members pay one hundred dollars upon election and twenty-five dollars a year thereafter. Upon the payment of four hundred dollars additional, Governing Members become Governing Life Members and are thenceforth exempt from dues. All receipts from life memberships are invested and the income only expended. Sustaining Members pay $25 or more a year. They are entitled to all the privileges of Governing Members, excepting the right to vote for, or to be eligible to, the office of trustee.

Benefactors are those who have contributed $25,000 or more.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by the Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts), and to the use of the Ryerson Library.

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with the museum instructors in Room 16.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES

FORTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

Chicago, January 1, 1921.

To the Governing Members of The Art Institute of Chicago:

THE YEAR 1920 appears in many respects as the Art Institute's year of greatest usefulness.

Visitors to the number of 1,136,174 have passed the gates during the year—including each student of the school once for each school day.

THE MEMBERSHIP this year is 12,609—an increase of 37 per cent over 1919 and 66 per cent over 1916, which was the largest pre-war year. It is an interesting fact that in Chicago today a larger number of individuals have enlisted in the support of this cultural center than in any other single organization of any kind.

THE ART SCHOOL during the year has attained a registration of 4267. The first year classes are overcrowded for the time being, but the result of this condition is to put the school upon a better financial basis, while making it possible to accelerate the raising of the standard. In pursuance of the established plan of stabilizing scholarship, a new course, devoted to a survey of the art epochs, is required of the first year students. This is under the direction of Miss Gardner. The work is carried on through lectures, discussions by the students under leadership, and research. This course and the revised methods in the design and normal departments tending in the same direction have developed the usefulness of the library and museum many fold.

The result of the innovation adopted in 1917 of giving the first-year students a series of courses of an order entirely new in art school practice, looking to a more intensive development of their observation and technical power, has met with such success that a general demand for more closely organized courses in the upper years has been created. The fulfillment of this demand will ultimately revolutionize the entire method of the school and differentiate it from that used in any other art school in existence.

The school is developing as rapidly as possible toward a closer contact with the industries. The design department has projected a series of courses in typography which are to be put before a number of representatives of the printing industry early in the year for criticism; classes in lithography working under the co-operation of the lithographic trade and the Institute are at work in the day, evening and Saturday schools. Other industrial art courses are contemplated.

The total attendance in the BURNHAM and RYERSON LIBRARIES for 1920 was 64,183, readers only being counted. The opening of the Burnham Library hall is the outstanding event of the year. The files of many magazines, some of them interrupted by the war, have now been completed, and much progress has been made in the work of cataloguing and indexing photographs and other types of reference material, greatly increasing their accessibility. The student use of the library for 1920 shows a great increase over any other year: In October, 1918, it was approximately 2,000; in October, 1919, about 4,000; and in October 1920, about 7,000.

THE EXTENSION DEPARTMENT during 1920 conducted thirty-six five-day institutes in as many different localities, five of these being state fairs in Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Tennessee, and Oklahoma. Seventeen contracts are already in hand for the coming year. A series of demonstrations on dress given by Miss Evelyn Hansen was inaugurated and has met with great success. A project, long contemplated, of furnishing single lecturers in addition to the three-and five-day institutes promises to be a feature of the coming year.

Some SIXTY EXHIBITIONS were held at the Art Institute during 1920. Besides the exhibitions of painting, sculpture, architecture, and handicraft, there were held: that of the Wild Flower Preservation Society, which contained a great deal that was suggestive to the designer as well as the naturalist; the exhibition of table decorations, one of a series planned to show the application of art to every day life; the exhibition of advertising art in which an insight was given into the methods and processes used by artists and advertisers in getting their work before the public. A notable event was a display of rare tapestries and sculpture, largely of the Gothic period in France and Flanders. The loan exhibitions from Chicago collections which graced and lent prestige to the Institute during the summer months are noted in a separate table of exhibitions.

PICTURE SALES at the Institute in 1920 amounted to about $42,000. Every effort is made to sell the pictures in the exhibitions, both as an accommodation to the public and for the encouragement it gives to the artists.

IN THE PRINT DEPARTMENT loan exhibitions of Rembrandt etchings and Haden etchings from the Buckingham collections were among the notable displays. Among the ACCESSIONS were: a group of sixty-five engravings, etchings and woodcuts presented by Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer; and fifty-four etchings by Beaufrère, presented by Morton H. and Alfred K. Eddy. The most notable purchase of the year comprised the entire work of Odilon Redon in etching and lithography. This valuable collection was purchased from Mme. Redon, the artist's widow, and was his own personal set. It numbers some 209 examples and is the most complete collection of Redon extant.

During the year we have acquired several notable groups of DRAWINGS. Forty-two of the finest and most sensitive of Burne-Jones' pencil works were purchased; eleven typical examples of the designs of Leon Bakst, four pastels by Zandomeneghi and a very fine pencil drawing by Meryon, his finished study for the "Rue des Toiles." Mr. Robert Allerton has given a group of thirteen modern English drawings. Mrs. Julius Rosenwald gave three drawings by Abel Pann from the distinguished exhibition of that artist's work.

In the field of PAINTING the Institute's purchases have included thirteen modern French paintings. Among these the Portrait of a Young Girl by Henri Regnault is an acquisition of supreme importance. A magnificent gift is the portrait by Raeburn of Dr. Welsh Tennent, given by Mrs. R. Hall McCormick. The Golden Wedding, by Adriaen van Ostade, long numbered among the Institute's collections, has now been made the gift of George B. and Mary R. Harris.

THE FRIENDS OF AMERICAN ART have presented five paintings during the year: "The Fishermen," by Bryson Burroughs; "The Pumpkin Girl," by W. Victor Higgins; "St. Nicolas du Chardonnet," by Harry Lachman; "Icebound falls," by Ernest Lawson; and "Chrysanthemums," by Grace Ravlin. The collection of works of American art given by the Friends of American Art now numbers 97 paintings, 6 works of sculpture, and 36 prints, representing an investment of over $200,000. This organization by ten years' work has placed the Art Institute's collection of contemporary American art in the front rank among museums. Through Mr. Arthur Meeker's generosity was acquired Lachman's "Tower, Cormery."

Friends of Leon Gaspard presented his "To the dance." A bronze group by Edward Kemeys, "Lioness and cubs," was presented by Mr. William H. Winslow, and a portrait bust of Mr. Edward B. Butler by Julia Bracken Wendt was purchased.

In the DEPARTMENT OF DECORATIVE ARTS, the year's most conspicuous accession was a room of the Jacobean period with furniture and a fine group of paintings. This was the gift of the late Mr. Clarence L. and the Misses Buckingham in memory of their father and mother. Mrs. Hodge added forty-five pieces of miscellaneous English ceramics to the Blanxius collection; Dr. Gunsaulus presented a manuscript, the Periarchon of Ruffinus—a fine example of 15th Century Italian calligraphy and ornament. A group of reliefs, sculptors' models, etc., selected by Dr. Breasted in Egypt for the Art Institute is the most important purchase of this department.

The Endowment Funds have increased as follows:

An increase of $15,568.60 in the HARRIS FUND.

The largest new bequest, $94,331.32, was that of Mrs. Abbie L. Mead who died in 1918. This is to be known as "The WILSON L. MEAD Trust Fund for the encouragement of art," the income to be used for purchase of the best picture exhibited at any annual exhibition.

The heirs of John H. Wrenn gave to the Institute as a memorial to Mr. Wrenn, his Paris set of etchings by Charles Meryon, valued at $19,100. These etchings are duplicated in the existing collections, and in accordance with the desire of the heirs, they are to be sold and the proceeds invested, the income to be used to increase the graphic arts collections and to be known as THE WRENN FUND.

Another fund was the DANKMAR ADLER Fund, left by Mrs. Dela K. Adler (d. 1918), increased by her family to $1,000, the interest of which is to be used for a prize for an architectural drawing.

During the year Mr. Edward E. Ayer gave to the Art Institute in trust stock to the value of $50,000, the income of which will in course of time become available to increase the Ayer collection of laces, brocades, etc.

Other gifts by Mr. Edward Hoffman, Mr. Edward B. Butler, Mr. Edward G. Uihlein and the heirs of Norman Wait Harris are elsewhere enumerated in detail.

The B. F. FERGUSON MONUMENT FUND reports: progress on the model for the Theodore Thomas Memorial by Albin Polasek—designed for a position in Grant Park opposite Orchestra Hall; the completion and temporary installation in Washington Park of the full size model of the Fountain of Time by Lorado Taft; and the selection of a sculptor, Edward McCartan, and the completion of a preliminary sketch for the Eugene Field Memorial to be erected from funds appropriated jointly from the Ferguson Fund and from the resources of the Eugene Field Memorial Association. This monument is being designed for Lincoln Park.

An application of the principle of reciprocity was made this year when the Art Institute closed agreements with the Metropolitan Museum of New York and the Milwaukee Art Institute to extend free admission to members of these respective museums in consideration of corresponding privileges for members of the Art Institute.

Six life memberships were extended to friends of the Art Institute in recognition of benefactions, services or other associations. These friends are: Mr. J. C. Cebrian of San Francisco, Mrs. Bryan Lathrop, Mrs. Newton H. Carpenter, Mrs. W. M. R. French, Mr. W. F. Tuttle.

Among the governing members must be recorded the deaths of Messrs. F. H. Armstrong, Charles F.

Gunther, William G. Hibbard, Jr., A. P. Ripley. Newly elected were Messrs. Edward H. Bennett, W. F. Dunham, Morton D. Eddy, Alfred H. Granger, and Harry Hart.

In recognition of generous gifts BENEFACTORS were named as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson L. Mead, Mrs. Emma B. Hodge, and Mrs. Jene E. Bell.

There have been held 264 MEETINGS in Fullerton Hall with a total attendance of 90,757. The Institute's series of week day programs numbered 92, and the Sunday concerts numbered 58. Mr. Lorado Taft has continued his generous gift of a series of Sunday lectures, and during 1920 these were heard by 6,545 persons. The attendance upon the numerous meetings in the Club Room amounted to more than 10,000. There have been 141 dinners, luncheons and teas during the year, and 36 receptions in the galleries. The largest attendance was at the Annual Reception on November 4 and numbered more than 4,000 persons. From these figures it will be seen how intimately the Art Institute has established itself in the social and educational development of this community. Believing that members should be given increased opportunities for enjoying the resources of the Institute, a series of evening lectures and Sunday evening concerts is to be inaugurated with the new year.

The work of the MUSEUM INSTRUCTION DEPARTMENT has been somewhat curtailed owing to Mrs. Hall's enforced absence and the substitution of part time instructors. This limitation has been most keenly felt in the work for children for which there is an increasing demand and a resultant waiting list of schools which desire gallery tours. In the work for children, not only are more assistants needed but a Children's Room with appropriate equipment and the possibility of correspondingly appropriate activities. Besides the work of the Museum Instruction Department itself and those public school classes which have been conducted through the museum by their own teachers, 122 gallery tours have been made during the year.

A feature of the Institute's work which has a far reaching educational value is the PUBLICATION OF REPRODUCTIONS of works in the galleries. 375,000 Art Institute post cards were sold in 1920 and 16,000 color prints. These sales represent increases of 25 per cent and 28 per cent respectively over those of 1919.

Mr. Robert Allerton representing the COMMITTEE ON INSTALLATION has initiated a series of changes in the arrangement of the Nickerson Galleries and of the corridors of the second floor. This provides a fixed place for the adequate display of the Art Institute's collection of drawings and unifies the decorative plan of the entire floor, much to the improvement of the building.

For many years the Art Institute has been the recipient of the valuable and generously rendered services of a number of scholars and experts in specialized fields, the scenes of whose respective labors center in Chicago. During 1920 the Board of Trustees conferred three Honorary Curatorships adding the prestige and distinction of Dr. Berthold Laufer (in Chinese Antiquities), Dr. James H. Breasted (in Egyptian Antiquities), Mr. Charles L. Ricketts (in Manuscripts) to the Art Institute.

A number of important changes have occurred in personnel. Mr. Tuttle resigned the position of Secretary, severing an association with the Art Institute of eighteen years standing. Mr. Burkholder, formerly curator of exhibitions, has been appointed his successor. Mr. Block has left the Institution after a connection of eight years to become Director of the Art Association of Omaha.

In the School Miss Buckley and Miss Baker resigned from the Normal Department, the reorganized division being then placed in charge of Miss Mary Scovel. Mr. Robert B. Harshe, formerly Assistant Director of The Department of Fine Arts, Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, on October 1st became Assistant Director with immediate charge of the School. Mr. Clarence A. Hough has become identified with the Institute in connection with publicity and other work in the administration. Mr. Kaltenbach has been transferred from the Library to take up the reorganization of the department of labelling and cataloguing. Miss Marion Comings has been appointed Assistant Librarian in charge of the Burnham Library, and Miss Alling since October 1st has been in charge of picture sales.

The year 1920 has seen the problems of morale and efficiency in the working force of the Institute reach their most acute condition. The overturn in Guard Force, Shipping Room Force, Janitor Force and Office Force has been exceptionally high. The creation of the office of Assistant Director for the partial relief of the Director's office in general problems and in matters pertaining to the school can hardly be said as yet to have accomplished its intended aims because of other necessary adjustments. Much credit is due the working force of the Institute as a whole for the general atmosphere of stability which has been maintained through this most trying period in which the culmination of all the problems of the war-time years seems finally to have been securely overcome.

During 1920 the Director inaugurated a series of bi-weekly staff luncheons at which heads of all departments—service departments as well as professional—congregate. These seem to have played the part intended in the creation of an understanding of the problems of the Institute as a whole, and to have quickened the individual department's sense of responsibility in the sharing of these general problems. In this connection it may be of interest to note that the Institute's working force is distributed through twenty-one departments or sections, and including the School faculty of about forty instructors the total operating force of the Institute numbers approximately two hundred individuals.
