The Art Institute of Chicago was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The charter was amended, taking effect on December 1, 1925, and now reads, "for the object to found, build, maintain and operate museums of fine arts, schools and libraries of art, design, and the drama, with authority to confer degrees and grant diplomas; to build, maintain and operate theatres, lecture halls, workshops and lunch rooms in connection therewith, and to carry on appropriate activities conducive to the artistic development of the community; to form, preserve and exhibit collections of objects of art of all kinds; to cultivate and extend the arts of design and the drama by any appropriate means; to provide lectures, instruction, and entertainments including dramatic, operatic and musical performances of all kinds, in furtherance of the general purposes of the Institute; to receive in trust property of all kinds and to exercise all necessary powers as trustees for such trust estates whose objects are in furtherance of the general powers of the Institute, or for the establishment or maintenance of works of art in the community."

The museum building upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from September 1 to May 31; from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; to 5:30 from June 1 to August 31; Sundays from 12 to 8 p.m. from September 1 to May 31, to 9 p.m. from June 1 to August 31. Admission is free to members and their families and to school children of Illinois at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays. The Ryerson and Burnham Libraries are open free on week days from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays also from 6 to 9 p.m., Sundays, 2 to 6 p.m.

The art school, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, together with the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theatre, is under the same roof. The latter has a separate entrance at Monroe Street and South Park Drive.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to the use of the Ryerson and Burnham Libraries as well as to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by The Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts).

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with museum instructors.

The most significant event of the past year, indeed perhaps the most important event in the history of The Art Institute of Chicago, was the decision of the Appellate Court, afterwards reviewed and confirmed by the Supreme Court, fixing for all time the status and rights of this institution. The decree reaffirms the right of the Art Institute to permanent occupancy of its present site in Grant Park, affirms the right of the South Park Board in making an additional grant of land to the Art Institute and gives to us with certain limitations as to height and extent, the privilege of adding necessary enlargements to the present building. This tedious and, at times, alarming litigation was for the entire period under the able and devoted direction of Percy B. Eckhart, whose fellow trustees in recognition of his outstanding service to the Institute had already, in 1928, made him a Benefactor. Associated with Mr. Eckhart were Nathan G. Moore, Horace Kent Tenney and George E. Gorman for whose noteworthy assistance the Trustees desire to make public acknowledgment. Various Hutchinson Wing construction projects, including the Industrial Art unit of the School and the Triton Fountain by Carl Milles, postponed because of this litigation, were resumed and finished during the year. The construction costs of the Industrial Art unit were covered by the gift of the Association of Arts and Industries. This Association also provided an endowment sufficient to defray about one-half of the maintenance expense in this important Department. The Triton Fountain by Carl Milles, installed in the center of the Alexander McKinlock Memorial Court,

The total enrollment in the Day, Evening, Saturday and Summer Schools for the School year 1930-1931 was 4,061, a sharp comparative decrease resulting in a deficit of $16,458.09. It was found necessary to telescope many sections of the Lower School and to reorganize the department of Printing Arts and the department of Advertising Design on a more economical basis. Under faculty and staff changes may be mentioned the appointment of Charles H. Woodbury, N.A., as visiting instructor, and the resignation of Ernst F. Detterer, head of the department of Printing Arts. Norman L. Rice was given the title of Associate Dean as of July 1, 1931, and Miss Marguerita M. Steffenson came from the Vice-President's office of the University of Chicago to take the position of Assistant Dean left vacant by Miss Edythe L. Flack's marriage to Professor Emil Zettler. In the Fall of 1931 an extra-curricular croquis class, which has been meeting three afternoons and three evenings a week, was introduced in the school. In addition to a number of our own students many persons, including architects and artists who have completed their formal education, have taken advantage of an opportunity to attend a class in which they are permitted to work independently. A special class in fresco painting was conducted for a period of two months by Jean Robert La Montagne St. Hubert of the Fontainebleau School with good results. Emil Zettler has been appointed first Wells professor in the chair established in memory of Frederick Latimer Wells. Professor Zettler, a well-known sculptor, is head of the School of Industrial Art. Charles H. Woodbury, N.A., will serve as visiting instructor on the Wells foundation.

The gift of $10,000 by Mrs. Anna Louise Raymond to establish an annual resident fellowship of $500 for fourth year students marks a very important development in the school. Frequently students of real ability but slender means are forced to leave school at the end of the third year when another year's work would possibly secure for them a travelling fellowship.

The Repertory Company of the Goodman Theatre closed the season with a deficit of $19,560.50, covered almost entirely by the contributions of Trustee guarantors. The Repertory Company has been discontinued and the Theatre is being operated by the School of Drama, a department of the Art Institute Art School. Maintained in part by the Mr. and Mrs. William O. Goodman Endowment Fund and in part by supplementary rentals, it is expected that the department will be self-supporting. During the year six plays will be presented to which members of the Art Institute are admitted without charge. A Christmas play: "Tidings Brought to Mary" by Paul Claudel, and "This Fine-Pretty World" by Percy Mackaye have already been produced. In the Children's Theatre Stevenson's "Treasure Island" has delighted Saturday audiences.

Enrolment in the School of Drama is larger than ever before, reflecting public appreciation of more professional standards maintained both in teaching and in production.

The attendance in the Children's Museum for twelve months has been 151,819. The Curator continued her Saturday morning talks to children on the processes involved in art products, devoting the Spring period to American Art and the Autumn to architectural subjects, illustrating the talks with moving pictures. Throughout the year temporary exhibitions were held, among which may be mentioned: A Loan Exhibition of Portraits of Children, Drawings and Paintings by Mexican Children, and the Work of the classes under the James Nelson Raymond Lecture Fund for Children of Members and the Public Schools. From February 1st to June 15th the Curator acted as head of the Museum Instruction
Department for Miss Helen Parker who had been given a leave of absence to serve as visiting instructor in the Honolulu Academy of Art.

Ryerson and Burnham Libraries served 84,744 readers during the year. Architects, craftsmen, designers, students of the Universities, art and high-schools in the Chicago area make such increasing demands on our library facilities that present equipment for storage and consultation is being rapidly outgrown. Because the Ryerson Library already possesses the nucleus of a valuable Japanese section, Mrs. John M. Coulter presented, in memory of her husband, the late Professor of Botany at the University of Chicago, a rare set of volumes on the "History of Japanese Art." Compiled by Japanese scholars for the Imperial Museum of Tokyo, the translation was issued in less than a dozen copies, one of which was given to Professor Coulter. Mr. Alfred E. Hamill, another of the Library's most generous friends, has made important additions to the section of the Library devoted to Byzantine Art: "Monuments Byzantins de Curtéa de Argés," by Tafrali; two volumes of the series "Orient et Byzance"; "Contribution à l'étude des peintures murales valaques," and "La Peinture religieuse en Bulgarie"; from the same source have also come several volumes on Mayan art and archaeology, and a facsimile reproduction of an ancient Mexican illustrated manuscript, "Codex Vindobonensis Mexic. I." Among other generous friends of the Library are Mrs. C. L. Hutchinson, The Lakeside Press, Miss Carolyn M. Wicker, George E. Frazer, C. H. Worcester, and F. G. Logan.

The Department of Painting and Sculpture has been unusually fortunate during the past year, receiving a number of notable accessions. Among old masters, the splendid "Portrait of a Man," by Antonio Moro, acquired through the Robert Alexander Waller Fund, ranks with other great portraits in the museum and displays this important and little known painter at his best. The permanent collection is not strong in works of the eighteenth century French School; these canvases are difficult to acquire, so that we may consider ourselves fortunate to have secured the small but very attractive “Bathing Nymph” of François Boucher, purchased through the Wilson L. Mead Fund. Miss Kate S. Buckingham made a gift of Hans Eworth’s “Lady Wentworth,” lent by her for the Jacobean Room since 1920.

The most important gift of the year in this Department was the Arthur Jerome Eddy Memorial Collection, a group of twenty modern paintings and three pieces of sculpture, given by the late Mrs. Arthur Jerome Eddy and by Jerome O. Eddy in memory of the pioneer Chicago critic and art collector. An early “Philosopher” by Manet, a Whistler portrait of Mr. Eddy, and a marine by Winslow Homer comprise the nineteenth century canvases; of the contemporary group perhaps the most outstanding are four extraordinary examples by Kandinsky, the Russian artist who has lived most of his life in Germany and who has had a tremendous influence on the continent. Other German works which fill a gap in the modern sequence are by Franz Marc, Gabriele Münter, and Robert Genin, while the corresponding period in French painting is represented by Derain, Charmy, Herbin, Segonzac and Vlaminck, with the Portuguese Sousa-Cardozo. “The Shepherd,” by Eugene Zak, the talented Pole who was associated with the French School, has frequently been called his masterpiece. Two bronzes by Rodin and a head by Brancusi complete the Eddy gift.

To the Helen Birch-Bartlett Memorial, Frederic C. Bartlett has added “Ballet Dancers,” an early work by Toulouse-Lautrec, interesting for comparison with “Au Moulin Rouge,” Lautrec’s masterpiece, also in the same collection. The Joseph Winterbotham Collection of Contemporary Painting has received two additions, “Viller ville,” by Raoul Dufy, the gay and decorative French modern, and “Small City Square,” by Soutine, a Lithuanian, who has been painting in Paris since 1911. Now that the early work of Corot has come to be rated higher than his later, more poetic style, it is fortunate that Mrs. Charles V. Hickox has presented the Institute with Corot’s “Cathedral of Verona.”

In contemporary American painting, two canvases were added to the permanent collection through the prize awards established by Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan. “Haunted House” by Morris Kantor won the Logan Medal in the Forty-Fourth Annual American, while “Bistro Bruel,” by J. Theodore Johnson was awarded the same honor in the Thirty-Fifth Exhibition by Chicago Artists.

Acquisitions in sculpture for the year include, in addition to the three bronzes in the Eddy gift, a composition-stone figure by the German sculptor, Lehmbruck, whose early death cut short a career that would have doubtless been one of the greatest in the twentieth century. It was acquired through the Samuel P. Avery Fund. There remain to be noted two small bronzes of animals by Jane Poupelet, added to the George F. Porter Collection, “Three Hissing Geese,” by Heinz Warneke, given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester to the Children’s Museum, and “Wild Boars,” a large group in granite by the same American sculptor, received through the Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan Purchase Prize.

In the field of exhibitions, in addition to the Annual American, the Chicago Artists, and the International Water Color, the department has held a number of important one-man shows. These included paintings by Ivan Le Lorraine Albright, Anita Willets and Carol-Lou Burnham, Davenport Griffen, Morris Kantor, Beatrice Levy, Edgar Miller, Constantine Pougialis, W. Vladimir Rousseff and Frederic Tellander.

These were varied by important group showings, including a selection of foreign paintings from the Twenty-Ninth International, lent by Carnegie Institute, the Oscar F. Mayer Collection of Modern Paintings, a survey of one hundred and fifty Russian Icons, lent through the American Russian Institute, and the Third International Exhibition by the Chicago Camera Club. The Arthur Jerome Eddy Memorial Collection was shown in its entirety before being distributed.

The Department of Decorative Arts held the following important exhibitions: The Guelph Treasure, sponsored jointly by the Antiquarian Society of the Art Institute and the Renaissance Society of The University of Chicago; An Exhibition of Mexican Arts circulated by the American Federation of Arts; the Florence Dibell Bartlett collection of Swedish Wall Decorations; Chicago Costumes worn in the 19th century; French Quilting from the Collection of Elizabeth Day McCormick and an International Exhibition of Contemporary Metalwork and Cotton Textiles.

Acquisitions to the Department include a Franco-Flemish stained glass panel, the gift of the Antiquarian Society. Textiles and costumes given by Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne, Mrs. Robert R. Fauntleroy, Mrs. Clara Culver Gilbert, Mrs. E. D. Kimball, Elizabeth Day McCormick and Mrs. Potter Palmer. Mrs. John Borden presented an English Cabinet of the Charles Second period.

The Department of Prints and Drawings held various exhibitions during the year chosen from the Departmental Collections—in particular from the Clarence Buckingham and Charles Deering Collections. The Exhibition of Prints and Drawings by Rodolphe Bresdin brought together the most comprehensive group of work by this artist yet assembled. The catalog of the exhibition therefore becomes an important contribution toward establishing a complete record of Bresdin’s graphic work. By the donor whose name it bears the Walter S. Brewster collection of the work of Rodolphe Bresdin has been augmented by the addition of 12 drawings from the collection formerly in the possession of Bresdin’s daughter Rodolphine, and a copy of Champfleury’s book “Chien-Caillou” based on the life story of the artist.
The Annual International Exhibition of Etchings by the Chicago Society of Etchers, and of Lithography and Wood Engraving arranged by the Department have been continued. For the coming year, however, the Chicago Society of Etchers has asked the Art Institute to take over the management of their Exhibition, pledging the full cooperation of the Society. Mrs. Bertha E. Jaques, the able and devoted Secretary of the Society, has been awarded the Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan Medal for distinguished service by the Trustees of the Art Institute.

A significant gift which greatly increases the importance of the Art Institute group of prints by Toulouse-Lautrec is a collection of 53 prints presented by Hon. Carter H. Harrison. It includes both the French and English Series of “Yvette Guilbert,” two very fine impressions of “The Jockey,” one in black and white and one in color, and five illustrations from “Le Rire.” Mr. Harrison also made a gift of four lithographs by George Bellows, among them “Introducing John L. Sullivan” and “Between Rounds.” Through the generous cooperation of the Print and Drawing Club which has done so much in previous years to enrich the collection, the drawing “Two Hermits in Meditation” by Giovanni Battista Tiepolo, a drawing by William Blake, 18 lithographs by Toulouse-Lautrec, among them the rare print “En Scène,” the portfolio “Actors and Actresses,” and five lithographs by George Bellows were acquired. The collection of work by contemporary print makers has been increased by seven etchings from the 1931 Exhibition of the Chicago Society of Etchers presented by the Society, the Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan Prizes from the above Exhibition, the Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan Prizes and the Walter S. Brewster Prizes from the Second International Exhibition of Lithography and Wood Engraving, and four lithographs from the latter Exhibition presented by Alfred E. Hamill, and from Horace M. Swope the lithograph “Caudieux” by Toulouse-Lautrec. To the Clarence Buckingham Collection two etchings by Muirhead Bone were added. Additions to the drawing collection are “Side by Side” by Jacob Epstein, the gift of Robert Allerton, and three drawings by John Storrs presented by Charles H. Worcester; four lithographs by John Copley, “Une Longue Chrystalide” by Redon, “L’Ane et les deux Voleurs” by Daumier, “Sowing the Tares” by Félicien Rops and four lithographs by Toulouse-Lautrec were purchased from the Joseph Brooks Fair Fund.

Grateful acknowledgment is tendered to Mrs. Duncan Hodges and to Mrs. Noel Flint for efficient help given gratuitously to the Department.

The most outstanding additions to the Department of Oriental Art are three gilt bronzes of the Han Dynasty to the Lucy Maud Buckingham Collection. Three Greco-Buddhist stucco heads from Afghanistan were purchased from the Nickerson Fund. The Orientals have presented several important pieces of the Ming Dynasty as well as two fine early Chinese bronze mirrors. Thirty prints and two kakemono by Ukiyoe Masters have been added to the Clarence Buckingham Collection, and a number of Persian pieces of glass, pottery and porcelain were given by Frank G. Logan, Henry J. Patten and Martin A. Ryerson. Indian and Soudanese embroideries were given by Mrs. Potter Palmer, a Turkish velvet panel of the 18th century by Mrs. Watson F. Blair and an important Chinese fresco of the Yuan Dynasty by S. Yamanaka. A Catalogue of Chinese and Japanese Illustrated Books in the Ryerson Library, by Kenji Toda, was issued during the year. This catalogue, which was made possible through the generosity of Martin A. Ryerson, describes over 800 titles. The forty-eight items illustrated form a chronological survey of the development of book illustration in Japan. Studied in conjunction with single-sheet prints by the same masters, these books are of great value and interest. Many of the volumes described consist of pictures by popular artists whose collected works give a cross-section of the history of Japanese paintings in the Tokugawa period.
The Scammon Lectures for 1931 were given by Dr. Hermann Voss, Keeper of the Kaiser-Friedrich Museum, Berlin. Dr. Voss, a specialist in 17th Century Italian painting, delivered six lectures dealing with the masters of this neglected period.

The Art Institute was prominently represented at the Second International Persian Congress held in London in connection with the Burlington House Exhibition of Persian Art. Arthur Upham Pope, Advisory Curator of Muhammadan Art, was Chairman of the Board for the Congress and Julie Michelet, Keeper of Muhammadan Art, attended as delegate. Many loans from our collections of textiles, metal work and pottery were made to this noteworthy Exhibition.

In the year 1931 the Membership Department added $46,695 to the Life Membership Endowment Fund which now amounts to $1,252,983.50. Net receipts of the Department amounted to $47,592.46. While our Life and Sustaining Members were increased, our annual Membership showed a decrease of 2,124. We now have a total membership, in all classes, of 14,284. Bequests were received from Harry Hart, a Governing Member, of $25,000; from Thomas D. Jones, a Governing Member, of $50,000; from Horace S. Oakley, a Trustee, of $10,000. In addition to the gift of $10,000 for a resident fellowship, Mrs. James Nelson Raymond again gave $400 for equipment and $2,000 toward the continuance of the James Nelson Raymond Lecture Fund for Children of Members and Public Schools.

The Trustees named the following Benefactors of the institution and ordered their names placed on the bronze tablet in the lobby: Jerome Orrell Eddy, Lucy Orrell Eddy, Harry Hart, Thomas D. Jones, Frederick Latimer Wells.

Trustees elected for a term of seven years to succeed themselves were: Arthur T. Aldis, Alfred E. Hamill, Russell Tyson. (Mr. Aldis has since become an Honorary Trustee.)
The following new Trustees were elected: Joseph T. Ryerson for a term of seven years, Thomas E. Donnelley for a term of five years.

The resignation because of non-residence of Charles H. Thorne, a Trustee since 1915, active member of the Executive, Financial, Library, Budget and School Committees, was regretfully accepted.

New Governing Members elected by the Trustees were: Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, Mrs. Alfred E. Hamill, Miss Alice Roullier, George B. Harrington and Albert H. Wetten.

Governing Members lost to us by death were: Mrs. John Alden Carpenter, Redmond D. Stephens, Walter A. Strong, F. Edson White.

Honorary Members lost to us by death were: Thomas L. Clarke, Robert W. DeForest, Daniel Chester French.

The Art Institute has for several years been compelled to restrict its activities and to forego needed improvements and staff additions. Our expenditures during the current year were, for instance, $50,000 less than in 1928. Annual receipts from unrestricted endowment funds which might have been applied to the purchase of works of art, in the amount of $209,000, are now used for general maintenance. Receipts from Memberships have fallen off and municipal tax funds received through the South Park Board have been shared with a new institution, the Shedd Aquarium, and therefore greatly reduced. We entered upon the current year with a budget deficit of $25,000, toward which President Palmer contributed $15,000. Through the most rigorous internal economies and unexpected non-recurring receipts the Trustees are happy to report to the Governing Members a condition which is almost unique among Chicago institutions—a balanced budget for the year ending December 31, 1931.
It is customary, in most annual reports, to end with a summary of institutional needs and an appeal for support. The Trustees feel that such an appeal at this time would be both selfish and unwise.

Robert B. Harshe, Director.

For the Trustees:

Potter Palmer, President
Robert Allerton, Vice-President

BENEFACTORS AND MEMBERS

BENEFACTORS: Whenever any person shall have contributed fifty thousand dollars or more, or its equivalent, to The Art Institute of Chicago, he shall be named a Benefactor of The Art Institute, and his name shall be printed in each Annual Report under the head of Benefactors of The Art Institute, and also be placed on the Benefactors tablet in the main hall.

Living Benefactors become Honorary Governing Life Members and are henceforth exempt from dues.

HONORARY MEMBERS: Honorary Members are chosen from among persons who have rendered eminent service to the institution.

GOVERNING MEMBERS only shall have the right to vote for or be eligible to the office of Trustee. The number of Governing Members shall be limited to two hundred and fifty. Each Governing Member pays one hundred dollars upon election and annual dues of twenty-five dollars.

Governing Members, upon payment of four hundred dollars, are exempt from dues and are known as GOVERNING LIFE MEMBERS. The receipts from these funds are invested, and the income only expended.

SUSTAINING MEMBERS: Sustaining Members shall be those who contribute twenty-five dollars or more annually to The Art Institute. They shall be entitled to all the privileges of Governing Members, excepting the right to vote for, or be eligible to, the office of Trustee.

LIFE MEMBERS: Life Members, upon the payment of one hundred dollars, have all the privileges of Annual Members for life. All receipts from these memberships are invested, and the income only expended.

ANNUAL MEMBERS: Annual Members pay ten dollars a year.

The Art Institute has reciprocal arrangements with a number of other museums, whereby the membership cards of one are honored by the others. This constitutes a valuable privilege when visiting the cities indicated.

Such arrangements are in force with the Metropolitan Museum of Fine Arts in New York; Milwaukee (Wis.) Art Institute; Toledo (O.) Museum of Art; The Cleveland (O.) Museum of Art; Wichita (Kans.) Art Association; The Charleston (S. C.) Museum; Fine Arts Gallery of San Diego (Calif.); The Newark (N. J.) Museum Assn. (Newark Museum.)

All members are entitled, with their families and non-resident visiting friends, to all lectures, receptions, and exhibitions given by The Art Institute, with the exception of special entertainments in Fullerton Hall, the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theatre or elsewhere. Sunday concerts are also excepted.
