The Art Institute of Chicago was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The charter was amended, taking effect on December 1, 1925, and now reads, "for the object to found, build, maintain and operate museums of fine arts, schools and libraries of art, design, and the drama, with authority to confer degrees and grant diplomas; to build, maintain and operate theatres, lecture halls, workshops and lunch rooms in connection therewith, and to carry on appropriate activities conducive to the artistic development of the community; to form, preserve and exhibit collections of objects of art of all kinds; to cultivate and extend the arts of design and the drama by any appropriate means; to provide lectures, instruction, and entertainments including dramatic, operatic and musical performances of all kinds, in furtherance of the general purposes of the Institute; to receive in trust property of all kinds and to exercise all necessary powers as trustees for such trust estates whose objects are in furtherance of the general powers of the Institute, or for the establishment or maintenance of works of art in the community."

The museum building upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from September 1 to May 31; from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; to 5:30 from June 1 to August 31; Sundays from 12 to 8 p.m. from September 1 to May 31, to 9 p.m. from June 1 to August 31. Admission is free to members and their families and to school children of Illinois at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays. The Ryerson and Burnham Libraries are open free on week days from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays also from 6 to 9 p.m., Sundays, 2 to 6 p.m.

The art school, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, together with the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theatre, is under the same roof. The latter has a separate entrance at Monroe Street and South Park Drive.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to the use of the Ryerson and Burnham Libraries as well as to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by The Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts).

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with museum instructors.

FIFTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

To the Governing Members of the Art Institute of Chicago:

All American art museums have been forced to make severe retrenchments during the past year. Some have closed their doors, others are open for two or three days a week; all have found it necessary to reduce personnel. The Art Institute began the year with a meager budget but it was soon found that general income from securities, taxes, memberships, tuitions, door receipts and other sources would be much less than had been anticipated. Drastic reductions in the museum and in the school were immediately put into effect. These economies have necessarily lowered the quantity and quality of service rendered the public by the institution.

The Membership Department reports a total membership of 13,349, a loss of 935 for the year. Life memberships, however, were increased by 71 and $22,581.50 was added to the Life Membership Endowment Fund which now amounts to $1,275,565.

Attendance for the year numbered 901,172.

The Goodman Theatre, through an aggressive campaign for rentals and careful attention to expenditures, was enabled to balance its budget. The following plays were offered free to members: "Right You Are," "The Good Hope," "The Enchanted April," "Lady Windermere's Fan," "The Cassilis Engagement," and "The Pillars of Society." The productions in the Children's Theatre were "A Kiss for Cinderella," "The Cricket on the Hearth," "The Emperor's New Clothes" and "The Nightingale." The number of students in the School of the Drama has increased by twenty per cent.

The total enrolment in the Art School amounted to 3,551 students. Miss Mary C. Scovel, for twelve years head of the Teacher Training Department, and Miss Matilda Vanderpoel, who has been a member of the faculty for over forty years, resigned on account of ill health.

The Ryerson and Burnham Libraries have served 81,789 readers during the year. The purchase of books and magazines has been greatly reduced but available funds are too small to permit necessary binding of books and periodicals or to guard against increasing vandalism. We may be compelled to abandon the "open shelf" system now in force or to restrict library service to our staff, to students of the Art Institute and to members. The Trustees wish especially to thank Miss C. S. Negrescou, Mrs. Charles Fabens Kelley and Mrs. Norman L. Rice for volunteer supervision in the Periodical Room; Miss Mary Louise Anderson, Irving K. Pond, Carter H. Harrison, Thomas E. Tallmadge, George G. Elmslie, Holabird and Root, and the Needlework and Textile Guild for books, photographs and slides, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Ryerson for greatly appreciated gifts of $2,000 to be applied to the purchase of books.

The Department of Museum Instruction reports a marked increase in adult interest and attendance especially in the evening classes. Since the Chicago School Board has eliminated the docent detailed for gallery tours in the Art Institute and since many private and suburban schools have discontinued their visits through lack of funds it was found necessary to drop one instructor from the staff of this Department.

Four hundred and sixty-five lectures were given in Fullerton Hall to 140,032 listeners.

The Extension Department gave a total of 435 lectures and gallery tours at which the attendance was 129,762. Through the abiding interest of Mrs. James Nelson Raymond we were enabled to continue the classes for Children of Members and of Public Schools for another year.

The Curator of the Children's Museum has given during the winter and spring a story hour for children of members and during the fall a series called "Tales of a Traveler" which covered a detailed art pilgrimage to Germany, Belgium and Holland. Exhibitions in this Department included: Christmas sculpture and paintings made by children in the Saturday classes of the Art Institute School, work of the classes under the James Nelson Raymond Lecture Fund for the Children of Members and of the Public Schools, and Animals in Art. Important gifts to the Department were made by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester, Mrs. A. W. Wickett, Mr. and Mrs. T. Shimo and Felix Gehrmann.

Important accessions to the Department of Paintings and Sculpture include a painting by Eugène Delacroix entitled "Saracens and Crusaders" purchased from the Simeon B. Through the bequest of Mrs. Lewis L. Coburn our Collections will be enriched by outstanding groups of Impressionist and Post-Impressionist oil paintings and water colors of which some noteworthy examples are illustrated in this volume.

Nelson, Julius Rosenwald, Donald M. Ryerson, Martin A. Ryerson, John W. Scott, Charles A. Stevens, Edward F. Swift, William H. Tuthill, William Wrigley, Jr. The resignations of the following Governing Members have been accepted: Oscar G. Foreman, Eames MacVeagh, Joseph R. Noel, F. F. Norcross.

The Trustees mourn the passing of their fellow Trustees Julius Rosenwald and Martin A. Ryerson. The bequest of Mr. Ryerson has been covered in full in the January number of the Art Institute Bulletin.

Early in the year your Trustees, after several conferences with the authorities of A Century of Progress

Exposition, assumed the responsibility for the selecting, collection and display of the official Fine Arts Exhibit. The entire second floor will be devoted to this exhibition which will show not only the painting of the last century but the background for it and the product of contemporary painters and sculptors as well. Painting from the 12th to the 19th century will be arranged in a sequence of nine galleries. Nineteenth Century foreign painting will occupy eight galleries, American painting twelve galleries and contemporary foreign painting five galleries. A parallel exhibition of Prints and Drawings is being arranged by the Department of Prints. This work is so far advanced and the responses from private collectors and from museums so generous that the Governing Members may be assured that the forthcoming exhibition will be in quality the most important yet held in America.
